3. On information and belief, Defendant Paul Bernard Lee is an individual and is a resident and citizen of Canada that resides at 180 Swick Road, Kelowna British Columbia, V1W 4J5, Canada.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This is a declaratory judgment action brought by Plaintiffs pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202 seeking a declaration that Plaintiffs do not infringe, induce infringement, or contribute to the infringement of U.S. Patent Nos. 9,187,989 (“the ’989 Patent”) and 9,869,163 (“the ’163 Patent”) (attached hereto as Exhibits A and B, respectively) (collectively, “the Patents-in-Suit”).

5. On information and belief, Defendant is the owner of the Patents-in-Suit. Defendant has raised at least a reasonable apprehension of the filing of a lawsuit against Plaintiffs, resulting in the establishment of a case or controversy between the parties relating to the Patents-in-Suit as set forth below. Accordingly, this action arises under the patent laws of the United States, including 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, 281, and 283-85.

6. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338, 2201, and 2202.

7. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant and venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400 because Defendant threatened suit for patent infringement in correspondence to Plaintiffs who reside within the District and because Defendant is not a resident of the United States.

BACKGROUND AND CONTROVERSY BETWEEN THE PARTIES

8. Plaintiffs are oilfield services companies that develop and build completion tools in the United States for the oil and gas industry, including, but not limited to, the ExactaStim device.

9. On information and belief, Defendant is the owner of all rights, title and interest in and to the Patents-in-Suit.

10. On June 19, 2019, Defendant, through his attorneys, sent Plaintiffs a letter alleging that Plaintiffs infringe the Patents-in-Suit. See Ex. C.

11. Specifically, Defendant alleged that Plaintiffs ExactaStim device “is covered by . . . claims 1-3 and 6 of the ’989 Patent and claims 1-3, 5-6, 15-17, 20-21, and 24-25 of the ’163 Patent.” Id. Defendant’s letter demanded that Plaintiffs “cease-and-desist all infringement” and threatened to “proceed with legal action in federal court to enforce [Defendant’s] rights in the [Patents-in-Suit]” if Plaintiffs failed to comply within five business days. Id.

12. Therefore, Plaintiffs bring this suit based on an actual, substantial, and continuing justiciable controversy existing between Plaintiffs and Defendant relating to the Patents-in-Suit that requires a declaration of rights by this Court.
